Q1. What was the most inspiring thing that you have learned from the conference?

From Kate Percival to Everyone: (3:19 pm)

M'b using the Bioregional one planet principles

From Administrator to Everyone: (3:19 pm)

Lots of different viewpoints

From Stephen Larkin to Everyone: (3:19 pm)

How much land is used for livestock that could be put to other uses

From stella hall to Everyone: (3:19 pm)

New rewilding network North

From Rich Hurst to Everyone: (3:19 pm)

We all liked the CAT presentation from Paul - excellent thinking and structure

From MDA228 to Everyone: (3:19 pm)

Networking is key to a common goal

From Mark Fishpool Middlesbrough Environment City to Everyone: (3:19 pm)

Land use and how we can do so much to tackle the climate crisis with the land resources that we have in the UK

From Rachel Murtagh to Everyone: (3:19 pm)

How there are so many more resources for young people to engage with this subject

From Cllr Matthew Snedker to Everyone: (3:19 pm)

CAT - Zero Carbon Britain, having a well worked out and evidenced program of policy changes that showed we are getting serious on tackling the climate emergency.

From Jacky to Everyone: (3:19 pm)

The fab detail in C.A.T. talk

From Sharon Lashley to Everyone: (3:19 pm)

Inspired by Climate Action Middlesbrough, the work going on in Greatham Creek and the CAT presentation - so many inspiring talks!!

From martin to Everyone: (3:20 pm)

becoming involved with rewinding not east potentially

From Louise Richards to Everyone: (3:20 pm) The key takeaway from the group was that in talking to the public we need to make things as simple and understandable as possible like in Paul's talk

From Ori to Everyone: (3:20 pm)

Mr. Bankinsop mentioned that the council goes through its areas and checks them on improving sustainability and efficiency. That is how I wish a government to be.

From Julie to Everyone: (3:20 pm)

So good to learn about all the groups active in the Tees Valley and all the good work being done to tackle climate change

From Barbara Keating to Everyone: (3:20 pm)

lockdown providing opportunities to explore locally. And land use graphic...that's two!

From Jo Mead to Everyone: (3:20 pm)

making a difference at a personal/community/area level

From Martin to Everyone: (3:20 pm)

that solutions were available and ready to run with

From Mike. O'Reilly to Everyone: (3:20 pm)

The ease of access to local green spaces and the importance of exploring them and encouraging/supporting others to do the same

From Timothy Crawshaw to Everyone: (3:20 pm)

feedback around how well organised and streamlined the local picture is, we are ahead of the north of the region, real opportunities in terms of education, skills and employment

From martin to Everyone: (3:20 pm)

rewilding

From Graham to Everyone: (3:20 pm)

Land use change - linked to changes in diet and food consumption. And how that could create new opportunities to manage land in different ways... re-wilding, woodland planting and creation of other habitats that can help to combat climate change

Q2. What would you love to do with this new knowledge?

From Rich Hurst to Everyone: (3:19 pm)

Scale and speed of change and optimism for future change

From Margaret Enstone to Everyone: (3:33 pm)

Making contact with each other for future joint working

From Mark Fishpool Middlesbrough Environment City to Everyone: (3:33 pm)

Improving our gardens for biodiversity

From Timothy Crawshaw to Everyone: (3:33 pm)

more knowledge and education about the issues and progress

From Cllr Matthew Snedker to Everyone: (3:33 pm)

Using the ten themes of the Middlesbrough Environment city to bring positive sustainability stories to people in their day to day lives.

From Paul Harman to Everyone: (3:33 pm)

Reminder of the need for networking across boundaries you have not considered before

From martin to Everyone: (3:33 pm)

importance of gardens for biodiversity

From Louise Richards to Everyone: (3:33 pm)

how to make the climate crisis 'worthwhile' for businesses

From MDA228 to Everyone: (3:33 pm)

protect the small and area we have to benefit biodiversity and public access

From Olivia to Everyone: (3:33 pm)

using the knowledge from today to implement into forward thinking teaching and learning even more from the people in my group/area!

From Sharon Lashley to Everyone: (3:33 pm)

Work with everyone to take direct action alongside strategic working - definitely need more community rewilding and we'd love to work with everyone on this!

From Ori to Everyone: (3:33 pm)

Connecting with similar regions from other parts of the world and sharing experiences and ideas.

From Julie to Everyone: (3:33 pm)

Meeting some lovely people who want to collaborate to inspire the next generation

From Jo Mead to Everyone: (3:33 pm)

work with groups to make changes on small to larger scales

From Jacky to Everyone: (3:33 pm)

Interesting chat about environment jobs in unexpected places

From Louise Gaffing to Everyone: (3:33 pm)

Difficult to see impact of changes but nice to make connections

From MDA228 to Everyone: (3:34 pm)

get talking to each other across boundaries

From Mike. O'Reilly to Everyone: (3:34 pm)

Somehow manage to spread the word and educate people that even the smallest changes can make a difference

From Cllr Matthew Snedker to Everyone: (3:34 pm)

Mapping the zero carbon Britain land use models onto our local authority area. What would Darlington look like in a zero-carbon world?

From Barbara Keating to Everyone: (3:34 pm)

local networks and ideas for using temporary "brownfield sites

From Jules to Everyone: (3:34 pm)

sheer scope and number of projects ongoing

From Rachel Murtagh to Everyone: (3:34 pm)

We have a brilliant resource to work with senior decision makers in our area we are entering an exciting phase

lots chat about working together, brownfield sites and changing things at a local level

From Graeme Hull to Everyone: (3:34 pm)

Ormesby Beck and Martin West Beck flood schemes. can we link to Middlesbrough Climate Project?

Q3. What have you got out of the online TVNP conference?

From Kate Percival to Everyone: (3:51 pm)

Thanks everyone for good chats!

From Julie to Everyone: (3:52 pm)

Great conference, thank you.

From Graeme Hull to Everyone: (3:52 pm)

what about a swap shop where people can raise issues, they want help with and people who can signpost or help with that?

From Mark Fishpool Middlesbrough Environment City to Everyone: (3:52 pm)

It is always great to catch up with likeminded people - including our friends from Oberhausen!

From Sharon Lashley to Everyone: (3:52 pm)

Brilliant sessions - lots of collaborations and new connections. Please do get in touch with us at Climate Action North to help us widen the project work across the North on our Rewilding North Network - brilliant conference. Very positive!!!!

From Mel George to Everyone: (3:52 pm)

It would be great to see more of these talks and coffee room chats.

From Jules to Everyone: (3:52 pm)

I have learnt about the diversity of projects and initiatives happening in the area

From Jacky to Everyone: (3:52 pm)

Got recharged batteries and new connections. Fab two days thanks!

From Kate Percival to Everyone: (3:52 pm)

Understanding who is out there and what they are doing to give us a fuller picture of how the region is responding

From Rich Hurst to Everyone: (3:52 pm)

It's been good to meet old and new people

From Olivia to Everyone: (3:52 pm)

meeting new people with similar interests and talking to people who work within the industry that I would love to be a part of.

From Martin to Everyone: (3:52 pm)

TVNP has to have a core that is expert led and then options within that core for people to choose from

From Timothy Crawshaw to Everyone: (3:52 pm)

loved the international element :-)

From Jan Rogers @ ESeTu to Everyone: (3:52 pm)

Making contacts& hearing about projects & ideas

From Barbara Keating to Everyone: (3:52 pm)

Great to have the breakout rooms to discuss everything and make meaningful local contacts.

From MDA228 to Everyone: (3:52 pm)

It's good to talk!

From Barbara Keating to Everyone: (3:52 pm)

thank you all!

From MDA228 to Everyone: (3:52 pm)

Get residents involved from the outset

From Cllr Matthew Snedker to Everyone: (3:52 pm)

Great conference, thanks to all involved. We need to get the financing model(s) in place ASAP.

From Louise Gaffing to Everyone: (3:53 pm)

The breakout rooms were great and nice way to make sense of lots of issues

From Samantha. Granger to Everyone: (3:53 pm)

Keep the conversations and networks across the tees valley and not limited to LA areas.
Great to see so much collaborative working

From Rich Hurst to Everyone: (3:53 pm)

Can we TVNP drive forward a Tees Valley area wide young people's climate forum

From Kate Percival to Everyone: (3:53 pm)

Great to get contacts

From martin to Everyone: (3:53 pm)

good start for some networking from a member of the public with interest in wildlife gardening

From Rachel Murtagh to Everyone: (3:53 pm)

Great to meet people all be it on-line

From David Richards to Everyone: (3:53 pm)

Really enjoyed the breakout session and the smaller groups and interaction with some presenters

From Mel George to Everyone: (3:53 pm)

I think a challenge for the partnership is finding innovative ways of engaging with the wider community.

From MDA228 to Everyone: (3:53 pm)

look forward to getting it on catchup!

From Paul Harman to Everyone: (3:53 pm)

Regular café? Ability to upload docs on our work or projects? Is there a Tess Valley Archive of Climate Action initiatives?

From Mike. OReilly to Everyone: (3:53 pm)

I've found the conference really interesting and have learned a lot about the great work that is going on to make that all important change. It's essential that all the group that have been here over the last two days remain in contact together to ensure that any opportunities for partnership working that arise can be acted upon.

From Jo Mead to Everyone: (3:53 pm)

presentations were really good and enjoyed the chat sections even though I wasn't looking forward to that part. good networking Thank you

From Stephen Larkin to Everyone: (3:53 pm)

Great to hear about what is possible and what is happening nearby and further away

From Ori to Everyone: (3:53 pm)

Make such conferences part of routine life in the regions?

From Martin to Everyone: (3:53 pm)

also looking forward to catching up online on the parts of the conference that I missed

From Jan Rogers @ Eshetu to Everyone: (3:53 pm)

People led - can participants keep in contact via an TVNP forum

From Julie to Everyone: (3:54 pm)

I agree with Jan Rogers can we all keep in touch?

From Ori to Everyone: (3:54 pm)

Oh, and establish permanent communication platforms ways for everyone!

From Jules to Everyone: (3:54 pm)

I will be researching deeper into the initiatives highlighted in the conference

From MDA228 to Everyone: (3:54 pm)

The TVNP has a key role to play in driving this agenda forward

From Cllr Matthew Snedker to Everyone: (3:54 pm)

Regional Citizens Climate Panel - with parallel Young People's Panel would be a great project to see happen.

From Graham to Everyone: (3:54 pm)

great conference - some really inspiring ideas and valuable information sharing. As a partnership we need to keep trying to broaden membership but also remain focused on our core agendas

From Barbara Keating to Everyone: (3:54 pm)

keep up the comms

From Heidi Scholz-Immer to Everyone: (3:55 pm)

again great conference, I hope we can find more ways to work together as twin towns for global sustainability

From Barbara Keating to Everyone: (3:55 pm)

I did have trouble logging in, and I missed chunks a

From Mike. O'Reilly to Everyone: (3:55 pm)

Well done in hosting the conference by the way. It can't be easy trying to bring so many people together in an online forum, so you have done really well.

From Julie to Everyone: (3:55 pm)

A Climate Assembly for the Tees Valley would be great

From Jules to Everyone: (3:55 pm)

I do hope to do some hands-on volunteering in the outdoors

From Barbara Keating to Everyone: (3:55 pm)

...missed chunks of presentation.

From Sharon Lashley to Everyone: (3:55 pm)

Thanks to Louise, Rachel, Tim and everyone who has organised this conference and to Matthew for chairing the breakout groups.

From Stephen Larkin to Everyone: (3:56 pm)

Good to know recordings with a; the slides will be available
